FORM DC-421 FRONT 07/14

To the Defendant(s):

- (1) The preferred location for an Unlawful Detainer action is the city or county where the property is located. If the plaintiff has filed this case in a city or county other than where the property you rent is located, you may object to the location. The court may transfer the case to the preferred location, if the court agrees with you. The court may award costs and attorney's fees to you if the court agrees with your objection. To object to the location of the suit, you must do the following:
 - Prepare a written request which contains (a) this court's name, (b) the case number and the "return date" as shown on the other side of this form in the left column under the words "TO THE DEFENDANT(S)," (c) Plaintiff(s)' name(s) and your name(s), (d) "I move to object to venue of this case in this court because" and state the reasons for your objection and also state in which city or county the case should be tried, and (e) your signature and mailing address.
 - File the written request in the clerk's office before the trial date (use the mail at your own risk) or give it to the judge when your case is called on the return date. Also send or deliver a copy to the plaintiff.
 - If you mail your written request to the court, the clerk will notify you of the judge's decision.
- (2) If you pay the landlord or his attorney or pay into court all (i) rent due and owing as of the court date as contracted for in the rental agreement, (ii) other charges and fees as contracted for in the rental agreement, (iii) late charges contracted for in the rental agreement, (iv) reasonable attorney fees as contracted for in the rental agreement or as provided by law, and (v) costs of the proceeding as provided by law, this unlawful detainer action will be dismissed pursuant to Virginia Code § 55-243 or 55-248.34:1. You may exercise this right only once every 12 months that you continue to live in the same place, regardless of the term of the rental agreement or any renewal term.
- (3) You may tell your landlord that you want another person to receive a copy of this summons, and the landlord shall send a copy to that person. However, the person you identify will not, by receiving a copy of the summons, become a party to the case or be able to challenge the landlord's actions on your behalf. Virginia Code § 55-248.9:1
