THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA AND THE COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA PROVIDE NEW DIGITAL SUBSCRIPTION SERVICE

RICHMOND -- Chief Justice Donald W. Lemons announced today that the Supreme Court of Virginia and the Court of Appeals of Virginia are offering a subscription service that allows interested parties to subscribe to emails or text messages notifying them of certain Court events. For example, subscribers can choose to be notified when either Court issues new opinions, posts oral argument recordings, posts argument schedules, or issues Court calendars. In addition, subscribers can choose to be notified when the Supreme Court issues rule changes and press releases. The Courts are pleased to provide this service in order to keep the bar and the public informed of important events in a timely fashion. The subscription process can be accessed on Virginia's Judicial System website home page, www.courts.state.va.us, and is simple to navigate. This free service is available now.
