IN THE CIRCUIT COURTS FOR THE COUNTY OF CHESTERFIELD AND THE CITY OF COLONIAL HEIGHTS

In Re: CURTAILMENT OF CLERKS OFFICE OPERATIONS

ORDER

On 16 March 2020, the Chief Justice declared a judicial emergency pursuant to Va. Code Ann. §17-1.330. Pursuant to that declaration, Va. Code Ann. §17.1-207(A)(3), Executive Order Numbers 51 and 53 (2020) and the Court's inherent authority to act in such matters, and the Court finding good cause therefore, effective immediately and continuing until further order of the Court:

The Court ORDERS that the Clerk be and is permitted to close her office to walk-in patrons, to reduce office hours, to alter local procedures, to require services by appointment, and to restrict office functions, provided: that the Clerk shall meet mission critical functions required by statute and by the Order Declaring a Judicial Emergency, and any amendments thereto, and it is further:

ORDERED that the Circuit Court Clerk's Record Room is closed to the general public. The Clerk shall make accommodations to continue essential functions, including, but not limited to record research and document recording.

Electronic filings, pursuant to Va. Code Ann. §32.1-48.013:1 are encouraged.

The Clerk of the Chesterfield Circuit Court and the Clerk of the Colonial Heights Circuit Court, respectively, are directed to promulgate and to publish this order to the public and provide a copy to the Supreme Court.
