

Effective March 17th and continuing through April 6th, the Henrico General District Court will continue ALL traffic and criminal cases set for trial, along with all other arraignments and motions currently on the docket during that time period, EXCEPT FOR arraignments, bond motions, preliminary hearings and trials for defendants who are currently incarcerated, Protective Order hearings, and hearings related to the impoundment of vehicles.

Preliminary Protective Order requests will be decided based on all of the information provided by the Petitioner in the Affidavit and decisions on impoundments will be decided on the information submitted by the requesting party.

ALL civil cases set for returns on Mondays and Fridays and ALL civil trials set during this time period will be continued.

In Order to limit the number of individuals in the Courthouse, we are temporarily not accepting in person the following:

- 1) Civil filings. You may continue to mail your filings with the fees. However, please contact the Civil Division to obtain a court date.
- 2) Payments for traffic and criminal cases. You may mail your payments or pay online at www.vacourts.gov
- 3) Motions to rehear and appeals

EXCEPTIONS:

- 1) Petitions for garnishment exemptions
- 2) Motions to quash evictions
- 3) Petitions for Restricted Operators License

Please check the Henrico County and Virginia Supreme Court websites on a regular basis for information regarding the dockets of the Henrico General District Court as there may be frequent changes. Further information on the rescheduling of all continued cases will be provided on those websites as it becomes available.

Thank you for your patience and understanding in this unusual time.
