

VIRGINIA:

IN THE GENERAL DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE CITY OF RICHMOND

STANDING ORDER ON JOINDER

In the event either party seeks to join cases assigned in separate courtrooms, the cases shall be placed before the presiding judge who has been assigned the case first initiated on behalf of the Commonwealth (in most cases, the lowest case-number). That judge will rule on the motion to join, and should the motion be granted, the cases will be joined in that courtroom.

For good cause shown, the judge hearing the motion may transfer the case to another courtroom for the convenience of all concerned.

ENTER: November 8, 2016,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tracy Thorne-Begland", written over a horizontal line.

TRACY THORNE-BEGLAND,
Chief Judge